The Grand Canyon Experience:

Medicine Wheels of our Ancient American Ancestors

Robin Rothrock exhibits her fascination with circles to honor the wonderful healing powers of the indigenous people of the American South West.

Photographs Robin took during her five day trip to the South Rim and Sedona, as well as original new work on canvas and Plexiglas will debut. Robin has discovered Plexiglas is more flexible than glass block, yet retains many of the positive features of the transparent substance!

Go to www.robinrothrock.com to find more information. including a beautiful virtual tour of a recent First Fridays and Robin's Grand Canyon photographs which are inspiring her paintings for this series.
